

2018 Design Excellence Awards Winner

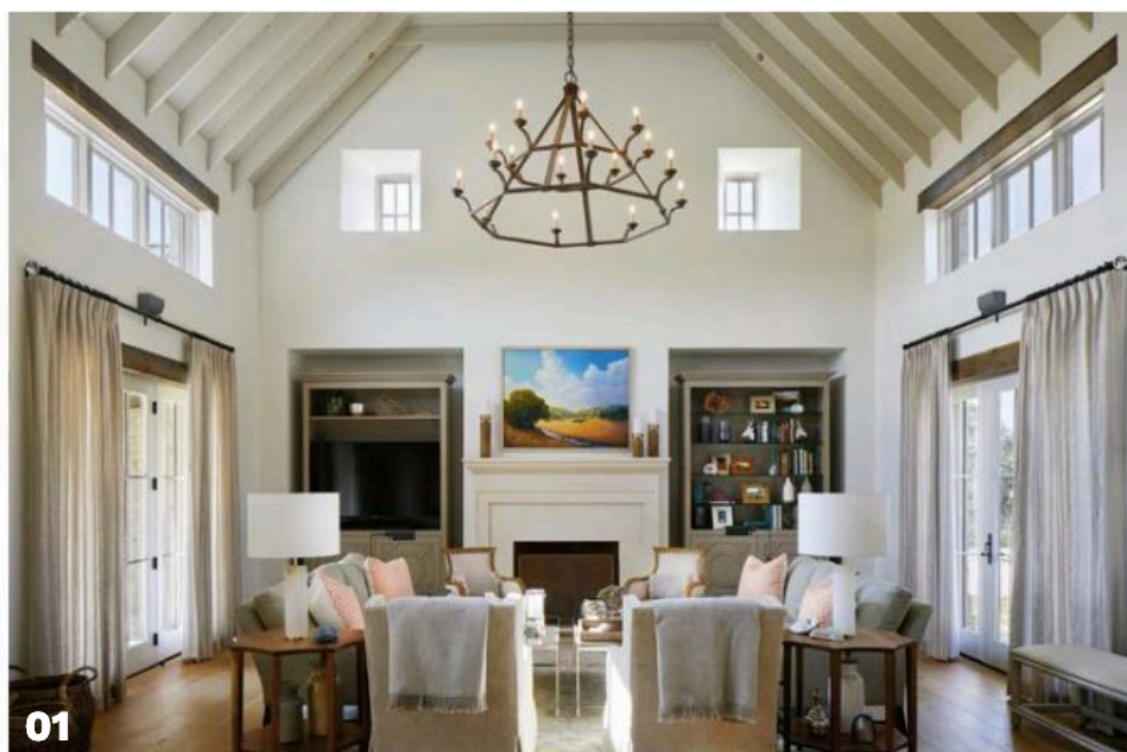

Multiple Categories

Donna Figg Design

After 22 years in the resort hospitality and residential design business, designer Donna Figg left Colorado to establish her own firm in Austin, where she grew up. With nearly 30 years of expertise behind her, Figg provides clients with an immersive, informing and inspiring experience. “Our style is client-driven and regionally focused,” she says, speaking of the many completed projects across the country. Involved from initial concept through furnishing installation, Figg and her team approach the design process with unique and creative solutions no matter the location. “We strive to create interiors that are purposeful, comfortable and meaningful,” she says.

“We focus on creating ‘unique moments’ in our designs.”

donnafiggdesign.com · 512.298.2588
info@donnafiggdesign.com

01

Inspiration behind the award-winning project:

Project name: Boot Ranch Sunday House 6

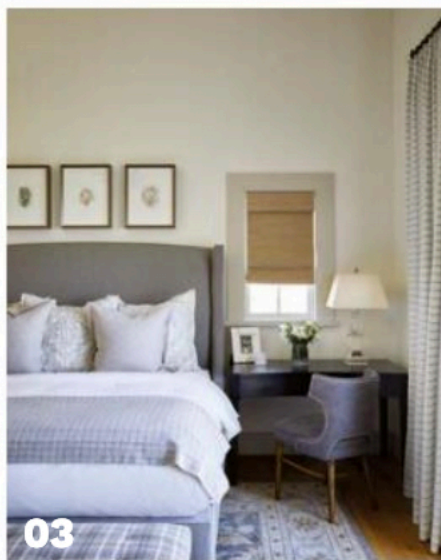

Project style: Transitional Hill Country

Design inspiration: Regional influences from the rich German heritage in Fredericksburg, including cabinetmaking and natural materials

Noteworthy manufacturers/artists/designers used in the design: Lee Industries, Summer Classics, Four Hands and local artist Marion Loucks

02

03

Residential Comprehensive / Transitional: Small (Under 3,500 SF)

1. The artwork over the fireplace is a commissioned piece by Marion Loucks that depicts a Boot Ranch hillscape. 2. The kitchen features the second hearth of the home, which Figg finished with a cut-limestone surround and brick backsplash. 3. Three crystals in shadowboxes grace the master bedroom wall.

1., 2. & 3. Photography by Dror Baldinger

The Design Excellence Awards showcases the highest achievements in interior design within the Austin design community.

04

Inspiration behind the award-winning project:

Project type: Country French residence

Project location: Houston, Texas

Design inspiration: The client has several family heirlooms and antique Louis XV French doors that provided inspiration for the overall design

How long it took to complete: 10 months

Residential Comprehensive / Traditional: Large (Over 3,500 SF) and Kitchen: Remodel

4. This kitchen was completely reorganized so that it would function efficiently for entertaining and embrace the country French aesthetic.

4. Photography by Connie Anderson

05

Inspiration behind the award-winning project:

Project name: Victory Ranch Residence

Overall project descriptions: The ultimate goal for this residence was to create a cozy setting for the second homeowners. This cabin getaway is a great example of mixing materials for relaxed leisure

Project style: Mountain Hygge

Design inspiration: The client desired a vacation home that was cozy with a Swedish feel in grays and whites. She also wanted modern and organic elements with industrial lighting

5. The great room features a reclaimed-wood dining table, Ralph Lauren rope chairs, and a cozy built-in bench by the fireplace.

5. Photography by Paul Richer

Residential Comprehensive / Transitional: Large (Over 3,500 SF)